RE: Lake Afton Public Observatory.

Special F Day Weekend at the Observatory

Bring your dad out to the Lake Afton Public Observatory for an out-of-this-world time looking at the Moon, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn through a big telescope and hear what the weather is like on them. Dad (or granddad) will get in free for the program, Planetary Weather, when accompanied by a paying child. Planetary Weather will be presented from 9-11 p.m. June 19 and 20. During the program dad will have the opportunity to look at the Moon, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.
