

Following are summaries of the cases to be heard by the Court of Appeals panel in Wichita:

Issues on appeal are whether the board erred: 1) in calculating Smith's disability award; 2) in finding all Smith's injuries stemmed from the first accident; and 3) by not finding that Smith met the required threshold to receive a disability award for his second injury.