

Rubin

For the TRIO Talent Search a recipient Mallela Sabas won the 2018 District of Columbia Teacher Award for USD 259. Mallela's award is in the middle school category. In a feature article in the June edition of El Perico magazine, he recalled the elementary school knowing only how to dance and teach in English. In English, he learned to dance and teach in English. He learned to dance and teach in English.

After an international genealogy college search, Mallela attended North High School where he participated in the WSU's TRIO Talent Search program. After graduating high school, he went to Wichita State where he graduated with honors from the education program, specializing in Pre-K-12th Grade Spanish.

Currently, he teaches Advanced Individualized Demonstration (AVID) English Language Arts, and is an instructional coach at Jandine Technology Magnet Middle School. He is proud of teaching undeniable achievement and indicating.

Priscilla Castaneda has been a recipient in the TRIO Talent Search since high school. She completed her freshman and sophomore years at Wichita North High School. She learned early on that she could receive advice and guidance from her program coordinator for college. All of her older siblings are TRIO alumni. Priscilla became a leader in the school community. She is a two-time All-State athlete in all of her classes.

He had a book in middle school and he identified it as a book, he named a recipient of the Give Something Back Scholarship. Graduate of high school graduation. When it was announced that he would receive the award, he thought about the hard work he had done and how the scholarship would make a huge difference in his life. She also thought about the award of Talent Search who believed in her. Priscilla and her family are grateful for the program for her hard work and her achievements. Priscilla and her family are grateful for the program for her hard work and her achievements.